PR Newswire
NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 21, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- S&P Capital IQ, a business unit of McGraw Hill Financial (NYSE: MHFI), today announced that Imogen Dillon Hatcher is joining the financial data and analytics leader as Chief Commercial Officer, effective April 14. In this newly-created role, Ms. Hatcher will lend her enormous industry expertise to lead S&P Capital IQ's global sales, client services, marketing and research network activities.

"We are excited to have Imogen join our leadership team in this strategic new role," said Lou Eccleston, president of S&P Capital IQ. "Her experience and industry knowledge will serve as a significant new resource to our commercial efforts as we continue to launch innovative solutions and grow our global business."

Ms. Dillon-Hatcher brings considerable global commercial leadership experience as well as a long record of success to her new role. She joins S&P Capital IQ from the London Stock Exchange, where she most recently served as executive director of global sales. Previously, she held a number of senior positions with a range of high-profile financial services organizations, including Lloyds Bank, Reuters, Financial Times Information Ltd, and FTSE Group where she was responsible for building sales teams, developing sales strategies, and driving revenue growth across numerous developed and emerging markets.
