

S&P Global Senior Executives Featured on 2023 Heroes Role Model Lists for Advancing Gender Diversity in the Workplace

NEW YORK, Sept. 28, 2023 /PRNewswire/ -- S&P Global today announced that five senior executives have been recognized on the 2023 Heroes Role Model Lists. Two of S&P Global's Executive Committee members, Martina Cheung, President of S&P Global Ratings, and Dimitra Manis, Executive Vice President and Chief Purpose Officer have been honored.

The 2023 Heroes Role Model Lists, presented by INvolve and supported by YouTube, showcase leaders who are championing women in business and driving change for gender diversity in the workplace.

"I'm thrilled to be recognized for championing women in business," said Martina Cheung, President of S&P Global Ratings. "Our own research shows how much more there is to be done and as Executive Sponsor for our Women's Initiative for Networking and Success resource group I have the privilege of collaborating with an active network of women who are all doing their part to drive change."

"It's an honor to receive this recognition alongside my colleagues. This is really a testament to S&P Global's purpose to Accelerate Progress," said Dimitra Manis, Executive Vice President and Chief Purpose Officer of S&P Global. "By putting our people first, we strive to create an environment of equity and inclusion – where all people have a deep sense of belonging and feel empowered to make meaningful contributions."
