The accounts, established under the Working Family Tax Cut initiative, are intended to help families build wealth over time through tax-advantaged savings and investment opportunities. S&P Global's matching program underscores the company's commitment to supporting employees' financial wellness and helping build long-term economic security for the next generation.

The company has consistently invested in programs that support employees' financial security and work-life balance. For more information about S&P Global: www.spglobal.com/careers
